

POTTERY PAINTING PLACE

Class: Look to the Masters Recipe: Mona Lisa Meets Andy Warhol Platter

Piece:

Gare Peasant Ware Dinner Plate #1026

Supplies Needed:

- Large Fan Brushes
- Large Square Brushes
- Tissue Paper
- Sharpie
- Mona Image to Transfer
- #2 Pencil
- Toothbrush
- Fun Writers
- Fun Writer Medium Tips

Gare Paints:

- Background- FS-2382 Tahiti Teal, FS-2391 Red Blaze, FS-2376 Bouncin' Berry, FS-2315 What-a-Yolk, FS-2303 Lime Ricky, FS-2314 Black Lab
- Rim- FS-2314 Black Lab
- Fun Writers- FS-2314 Black Lab, FS-2391 Red Blaze, FS-2382 Tahiti Teal, FS-2376 Bouncin' Berry, FS-2315 What-a-Yolk, FS-2303 Lime Ricky

Mona Lisa:

Use tissue paper and a Sharpie to transfer the Mona Lisa image onto the platter. First, place Mona underneath the tissue paper so you can trace her shape with a pencil onto the tissue. Then place the tissue on your platter in the center. Simply use a sharpie to then trace over the pencil lines, and the ink will bleed through the tissue to reveal sweet Mona! Use the Black Lab Fun Writer to fill in the lines like a coloring book. In areas like the hair, just scribble it in rather than trying to make it solid.

Background and border:

Using large fan brushes, paint sections of the background with various bright colors using 2 coats of paint. Use 1 brush for each color so the colors don't mix too much and get muddy, but while they are still wet, blend the transitions between colors. When the colors dry, use the colored Fun Writers to scribble and add crazy fun texture. Paint the border with 3 coats of Black Lab, and then fleckle the inside edge with more Black Lab so it gently blends into the colors. Before you fleckle, first place a sheet of paper over Mona Lisa to keep her safe from getting sprayed with paint. Then, dip a toothbrush into the black paint and then run your fingers across the bristles to splatter the paint. Fleckle to your hearts desire, and then for bigger splatters, dip a fan brush into the Black Lab paint and flick the brush firmly. Then, brag to neighboring tables about how cool your platter is!

In Partnership with

gare[®]