Fun Writer filled with What-A-Yolk

Sponge

Rubber Comb Tool

Directions

Step 1- Using the # 12 round brush, apply 3 coats of Black Lab to the back side of the plate going around to the top side to where the rim meets the center. Apply 3 coats of Polar Bear to the entire center of the plate and to the entire top of the small soccer ball bisquies.

Step 2- Draw or trace soccer ball pattern to the center. Apply 3 coats of Black Lab to the areas marked Black Lab on the pattern using the # 8 round brush. Use the # 4 round brush to apply the black on the soccer bisquies.

Step 3- Using the Fun Writer filled with Black Lab, add the connecting lines on the soccer ball in the center of the plate and the bisquies. You can also apply the names on the bisquies with the Fun Writer.

Step 4- Use What-a-Yolk Fun Writer to apply the name of the coach and the date. Outline the name in Black Lab using the Fun Writer.

Step 5- Squeeze out some Kermit. Using the # 12 round brush, apply to the rim in sections. Apply only one coat but apply heavy. Use a rubber type comb that you can get at a craft shop such as Michaels and comb through the green in different directions to show the black underneath. You need to do this while the green is still wet, which is why you may have to do it in sections (I did half and half).

Step 6- Let dry and dip in Dazzle Dip clear dipping glaze. Fire to cone 06. You can apply soccer balls before you fire or you can glue them on after.
