Step 1- Trace pattern on to the bisque excluding the cue sticks. Apply 3 to 4 coats of Kermit to where the felt would be on the pool table. Apply 3 coats of Old Yeller to where you can see the light wood color. (refer to photo) Go around the back side of the plate to where the footing of the platter is.

Step 2- Using a stiff fan brush, dip into the Mocha Chino and put in light streaks of this color going across the Old Yeller to give it a wood grain. Apply small circles of Mocha Chino with a detail brush.

Step 3- Apply 3 coats of Chocolate Moose where the corner and side pockets will be. Apply 2 coats of Black Lab to the pockets. Shade the area of the green as shown in photo With Green Acres.

Step 4- Trace the pattern of the cue sticks. Apply 2 to 3 coats of Mocha Chino to the thicker end of the stick and 2 to 3 coats of The Naked Truth to the other end. Apply 2 coats of Polar Bear to the tip of each stick. Apply 1 coat of Mocha Chino to put stripes on the top area of The Naked Truth. At the very tops of the stick apply Happy Trails leaving a stripe of the green between the Happy Trails and the Mocha Chino.

Step 5- Shade the bottom inside edge of each pool stick with Happy Trails. Also shade the bottom outside edge of each stick (Kermit area) with Green Acres. Clear Glaze and fire to cone 06.

Coup Plates: Trace each pattern onto a coup plate. Apply 2 good coats of Polar Bear to the white areas as shown in the photos. Apply 2 coats of Black Lab to the 8 ball. Apply 3 coats of Jumpin Jelly to the stripe on the # 12 Ball and 1 coat of Black Lab to the # 12.
